Residents, Clergymen in Opposition to Cardroom

Residents and church leaders in the Lafayette and Orinda areas have pledged their opposition to the granting of a cardroom license to Danny Van Allen's, 3554 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

And the protesting groups are scheduled to be represented at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Hall of Justice, Martinez, when the County Board of Supervisors will consider Van Allen's application for the license.

THE APPLICATION arrived at the board's offices late last Friday afternoon, and was hastily prepared for this week's meeting of the supervisors.

When Supervisor Mel Nielsen of Lafayette discovered that only a few of the opponents of the license were able to be on hand at that meeting, and many more protests were being filed by phone and in writing, he asked for, and the board granted, a continuance of the hearing until Tuesday.

Miss Mary Smith, assistant clerk of the board, reported she received 52 emphatic protests from Lafayette and Orinda residents while the board was in session Tuesday.

THREE OF THE area representatives who did appear at the Tuesday meeting were clergymen, who said they were there as individuals. They are the Reverend Clarence Stacy of St. Anselm's Episcopal Church, Lafayette; the Reverend Walter Bishop of the Orinda Community Church, and the Reverend Merle Tolefson of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Lafayette.

Since the meeting, however, the ministers have joined forces in opposition to the cardroom license, and they released a statement prepared by Rev. Tolefson yesterday.

The statement is as follows:

"I speak as an individual, but I express the sentiment of other churchmen when I oppose the issuance of a cardroom license to Danny Van Allen.

"OUR OPPOSITION stems from the fact that while it is legal to hold such a license, it is well nigh impossible to police such an operation.

"This opens the door for the attendant evils of professional gamblers moving in and the breakdown of the moral fibre, which leads to economic losses for families, dope peddling and prostitution."

The board of directors of the Lafayette Improvement Association met Wednesday night and discussed the matter, finally agreeing to send a letter of protest to the supervisors before Tuesday's meeting.

Association directors felt a cardroom is not in keeping with the character of the Lafayette community, might tend to draw undesirable persons to the community and is opposed by the majority of Lafayette residents.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY John Nejedly told The Sun Wednesday that the board of supervisors has the power to deny the license to Van Allen if the supervisors determine that his restaurant is "not a suitable environment for such an operation."

The district attorney said that if the application is denied, Van Allen's only remedy on appeal is to apply for a writ of mandate from the superior court.

Van Allen, who could not be reached for comment, does not have to state how many card tables he proposes to have in his establishment until after the license is granted, according to county officials.

Supervisors recently reduced the license fees for cardrooms. A maximum of four tables is permitted in any location which is licensed, and the fee for each table is $100 per year. Formerly, the cardroom was charged $100 each year and $300 yearly for each table.

The board also reduced from $100 to $25 the yearly license fee charged each card dealer.

Two Girls Injured As Brakes Fail

Two young people were injured when the car in which they were riding went out of control and crashed into a tree at Lombardy and Van Tassel Lanes in Orinda.

James W. Effinger, 16, was driving the car and riding with him was his sister Janet, 13, of 1226 Monticello Road, Lafayette, and Pamela C. Ferguson, also 13, of 60 Tarry Lane, Orinda.

The boy said the car's brakes failed.

Janet received multiple fractures and is reported in fair condition at Peralta Hospital in Oakland. Pamela was treated at the Oakland hospital for cuts and bruises and held overnight for observation.

She is reported in satisfactory condition.

Also riding in the car was Garth Hudelson, 15, of Irving Lane, Orinda. He was uninjured.

Mrs. W. L. Effinger, mother of two of the young people, said they were on a bottle drive for St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, under the direction of the assistant rector, Reverend Melvin Brown.

As James came down Van Tassel Lane, he attempted to brake the car and stop, before turning onto Lombardy. His brakes failed. He then attempted to run the car into a fence, but an unseen ditch threw the car into a tree.

All the young people were checked by the Effingers' doctor, Dr. Howard Conklin of Orinda, at the scene. Also on the scene were Rev. Brown and Rev. C. Corwin Calavan and the California Highway Patrol.

No citations were issued.

Holiday Crime Spree Hits Area

Seven Burglaries Are Reported in Last Week

The holiday spirit did not prevail for all persons in the central county last weekend as the sheriff's office reported a continuation of the petty crime spree in the area.

Seven of the crimes reported to officers during the week were burglaries, but the investigators said no great amount of property was taken in any of the incidents.

A double problem hit Mrs. Ann Lee of 2226 Sherman Drive, Pleasant Hill, during the holiday weekend, according to deputies.

IN THE process of moving into the Sherman Drive home from her former residence in Lafayette Saturday, Mrs. Lee told officers she found that the home had been illegally entered through a rear door and about $15 worth of liquor was stolen.

Monday, Mrs. Lee's husband, Don, died in an Oakland hospital. He had been ill for some time.

Jessie Roney of 1491 Creekside Drive, Walnut Creek, reported the burglary of a cottage located at the rear of his property sometime during the Christmas holidays, deputies stated.

OFFICERS explained the doors of the cottage were broken and the windows were smashed, so that the point of entry has not been determined.

According to Roney, four saws, an axe and some wrenches were missing from the cottage.

The sheriff's office reported a burglary was attempted at Green's Auto Parts, 2931 North Main Street, Walnut Creek. Deputies said the rear door had been jimmied, but no entry was made.

Vandals burglarized the physics classroom at San Ramon High School in Danville sometime last Thursday night, officers reported. Investigators said the room was entered through a window, and numerous test tubes were broken and thrown about.

TWO ROBES, worth a total of $25, were stolen during a burglary last weekend at the home of Fred S. Evans, 11 Meadow Park Court, Orinda. The culprits shot at four windows and then reached through to unlock one of the windows, officers stated.

The home of William McKee, 1271 Redwood Lane, Lafayette, was burglarized Sunday night, according to the sheriff's office. Deputies said a storage closet was entered via a breezeway at the home and 21 bottles of liquor, valued at $117, were stolen.

The last burglary occurred at Gimbo's Restaurant and Bar in Rheem Center, where the rear door appeared to have been jimmied and an undetermined amount of cash and checks was taken, officers reported.

TWO MORE shoplifting arrests were made in Pleasant Hill and officers said both cases involved juveniles.

The first incident occurred Friday afternoon at the L and S

Drugs, 1601 Contra Costa Highway, where two Pleasant Hill girls, aged 14 and 12, were apprehended after they allegedly took some candy without paying. They were cited by the sheriff's office.

Two young Walnut Creek brothers, aged 16 and 12, were given juvenile citations after they were apprehended at the Payless Drug Store, 2130 Contra Costa Highway, deputies stated. The boys allegedly took three darts and a bottle of vitamins.

SURVEYING instruments worth $175 were stolen from the end of Via Roble in Lafayette Saturday, officers said. The instruments, taken with the tool box in which they were located, are owned by the Maynes Construction Company of Lafayette.

A middle-aged man apparently walked off with a transistor radio from the Danville Radio and TV shop, 327 North Hartz Avenue, Danville, Tuesday afternoon, deputies reported. The man entered the store, asked for two young boys, sat down and when he left the radio was missing from the store window, the sheriff's office was told.

Sheriff's Office Is Holding Four Found Bicycles

Four bicycles were found in various locations throughout the central county area during the last week are being held for their owners at the sheriff's substitution in Lafayette.

One of the bicycles was found by Mrs. John Tague of 406 Lenox Court, Pleasant Hill, who said the vehicle had been abandoned near her home for several days. The bicycle is a boy's 20-inch model, deputies said.

Mrs. W. C. J. Mastrigt of 176 Camino Pablo, Orinda, found another boy's bicycle in the vicinity of her home, according to the sheriff's office.

Deputies said the two remaining bicycles were found by Jerry Fox, who operates a service station at the intersection of Golf Links Road and Highway 24 in Pleasant Hill. The bicycles are a girl's 26-inch model and a boy's 16-inch model.

THIS SCENE west of Orinda is making central county residents happy for two big reasons. First, it means work on construction of the third bore of the tunnel is really under way, and second, there's free firewood available for as long as it lasts. The $10 million tunnel, which is expected to relieve a great traffic bottleneck in the area, will take about three years to complete. It will be located about 150 yards north of the existing twin-bore tunnel.

Grand opening celebration for the new traffic channelization and traffic lights at the intersection of Camino Pablo and Brookwood Road will be held at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, according to Kenneth Courtwright, president of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce.

Dignitaries from the State Division of Highways office in San Francisco, county officials and local community leaders will be on hand for the ceremonies, which will kick off the new traffic pattern at the intersection.

The chamber has crusaded for the traffic lights and vehicular control at the corner since the freeway was opened.

The Park's manager for "six happy years," Parrish goes to work about noon each day to take care of the book work and operations of the theatre.

In his opinion, Parrish said, family-type comedy programs "will, by far, outplay adult dramatic shows." Because the film producers are now turning out fewer films each year, he added, "the American people are getting better entertainment than ever before."

HE SUGGESTED that local residents should feel free to call him any time they are in doubt as to whether or not a picture at the Park is suitable for family viewing.

Parrish pointed out that the Park tries to show only "family" programs, but when this is not possible, the program will be advertised as "for adults only."

Another suggestion offered by the theatre manager is the celebrating of children's birthday parties at the Saturday afternoon matinees.

"How else can you thoroughly entertain the kids without any bother?" he asked.

A PLEASANT CHORE for theatre managers throughout the area is serving as "babysitter" for the community's youngsters during the Saturday "Kids' Matinee" each week. Here, Fonzie Parrish, manager of the Park Theatre in Lafayette, shows his delight with part of the large crowd which attended the theatre Saturday afternoon. Parrish has been manager of the Lafayette theatre for six years.

Transit Engineer Says Property Values Will Increase with System

Construction of the proposed Bay Area rapid transit system can result in dramatic increases in property values, according to Kenneth M. Hoover, chief engineer of the five-county Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

Hoover made that statement in summing up a report to the district's board of directors on a joint study made by the district's engineering consultants and the Planning Department of the City of Berkeley. Subject of the study was rapid transit's possible effect on Berkeley's tax base.

"MANY communities have over-emphasized what I shall term the 'negative' aspects of rapid transit facilities. In my opinion, they have failed to appreciate fully the 'positive' beneficial effects that these facilities will have on their communities."

"I refer not only to the tremendous benefits rapid transit will bring directly through increased accessibility, but also to the opportunities it will present for redevelopment and renewal projects in conjunction with the construction of transit facilities.

"Our study determined that the assessed valuation of the land and improvements required for rapid transit facilities in Berkeley, excluding the parking areas at stations, is $370,000," Hoover said. "This figure represents the assessed value of total parcels, and we did not make an estimate for the assessed value of the portions of many of these parcels that can be returned to the tax roll."

"The study took into account only a four-block stretch along Hearst Avenue where we propose to acquire land to permit widening of the street and construction of aerial rapid transit facilities," Hoover explained.

IN THIS AREA, he said, the Berkeley Planning Department envisions that portions of parcels not utilized for construction can be redeveloped for multiple residential dwelling units.

Members of the Berkeley planning staff constructed a model showing how the area would look in its redeveloped state.

"Our study showed that assessed valuations for the multiple residential development as IN TORONTO, assessed values in subdivisions through which the rapid transit system passes increased 37 per cent in five years, while assessed values in the remainder of the city showed an increase of 20 per cent.

"The difference of 17 per cent is attributed directly to the increased accessibility provided by rapid transit," Hoover said, adding: "It is only reasonable to expect a gain in assessed valuations in areas tributary to the rapid transit system in the Bay Area."

To determine the property tax effect of land acquisition for parking at the Berkeley transit stations, the rapid transit engineers and Berkeley planners computed the assessed valuation of all property that will remain within a walking distance of three blocks from the three stations.

envisions by the Berkeley planners would result in an assessed valuation for this area of $420,000. This, therefore, would more than offset the loss of assessed valuation due to right-of-way acquisitions along the entire route in Berkeley, with the exception of areas required for parking."

Base for the studies, Hoover said, was the documented appreciation of land values which has occurred in Toronto following construction of rapid transit in that city.

"The study showed," Hoover said, "that an increase in the valuation of this property of less than four per cent would more than offset the valuation loss to parking requirements."

In A Complete Fog . . .

The children went happily back to school this week & mothers just as happily fell completely apart at the seams. It's like New Year's Eve . . . You can keep going till it's all over and then shambroom!

IF YOU think YOU look tired, just take a look around! Never have there been so many circles and bags under so many eyes.

The holidays are over but the memories linger on . . . CHRISTMAS LEFTOVERS . . . Recognize the choral group singing in front of the Walt Jamesons on El Toyonal . . . Their four children, for sure. Three years ago, w/a few days vacation on hand, Walt & June decided to do this project, grabbed each child in turn & laid each one down on plywood to outline their profile. A little paint & Voila! A handsome bit of decoration that decks their driveway entry every season.

THE SANTAMENTAL Season . . . Thanks to the Worths on El Toyonal for their tall lighted tree, a warming sight on a cold wintry night . . . Another thanks to the Hoyers for their outdoor Nativity Scene & to the Vic Grabers for the Fairland facade created w/giant candy canes afrent their Rheem Blvd. res.

We liked, too, the Frank Davenport's mailbox dressed in candy canes & the Ray Fontaines' mailbox adorned w/silver magnolia leaves & greens.

A THING OF BEAUTY is a joy forever & nothing at Podesta & Baldocchi could compare to the exquisite satin, velvet & bejeweled Victorian baubles fashioned by Mildred Austin.

This ambitious artistic neighbor of ours & her husband Wayne went South for the holidays to visit w/their dgthr. Arloa Tinley & see their new grandson Mike. Mildred's gift to her dgthr . . . a handbraided 4 x 10 hall runner.

WE LIKE TO remember . . . Cornelia Adams' high Jule Kakee baked in a high French copper mold . . . Acacia Drive lit up like Disneyland at night, ditto across the way in the Claremont region . . . The package-laden sleigh in the Firehouse tree . . . or does it belong to Phair's?

Georgie & Frank Walker hosted their annual big bash pre-Christmas & the Jerome Donchins had a slew of friends in to view their very beautiful Japanese garden recently completed by Landscaper Henry Matsutani.

I WONDER if anybody showed up at the Joe Longacres between the hours of 6:30 & 7:30 A.Y.E.M. on Dec. 25 . . . Their family card might have been a gag but puzzled many who took the "cheers-invite" seriously & pondered the quandry of that usual sleepy & sober hour.

Bud & Pat Loughman called friends in for cheer, chat & a chorle to the latest Bob Newhart record on Dec. 26 . . . From Orinda, the George Talbots, Gordon Martins, Jule Harrahs, Ger Pixleys, Andy & Bettina Anderson & Miriam & Arthur Miller were among the dropper-inners who met Bud's brother Donald visiting here from New Rochelle.

Pat & Art Hall took their Tiny Tim (& his six new teeth) down to Pasadena to visit his paternal grandparents . . . & the Architect Lee Darrows took their Brian as well as their new baby boy for a Christmas Visit to the Southland, too.

High School Group Plan Mexico Trip

Forty-five teenagers, parents and teachers will make a tour to Mexico during 'spring vacation' where they will meet educators and visit historical and cultural centers.

Interest in planning such a trip arose from the young people themselves, who felt that great educational value could be had from the visit.

Their schedule will include round table conferences with Mexican teenagers and they will have the opportunity to use the Spanish language daily.

FORTY-TWO persons from the central county area have already indicated interest by returning application forms to the Contra Costa Travel Service of Concord where Manager Patrick Mitchell is making arrangements.

Mitchell said the conferences will offer an exchange of ideas or politics and cultures with Mexican art and crafts a highlight.

The group director is Charles Donna, director of the Acalanes High School foreign language department. Both he and his wife will join the tour.

Lt. Robinson Gets Infantry School Training

Army 2d Lt. Ronald M. Robinson, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Robinson, 18 Van Assel Lane, completed the eight-week officer orientation course December 21 at the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

The course is designed to familiarize newly commissioned officers with the duties and responsibilities of an infantry unit commander.

Lieutenant Robinson is a 1956 graduate of Berkeley High School, a 1960 graduate of San Jose State College, and a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity and Sacabard and Blade society.

Donna has set the maximum number of persons who can be included at 45. The tour is open to any teenager or parent interested, and 20 have already paid deposits.

THEY WILL leave San Francisco March 25. The cost of $323.65 includes air transportation in Western Airlines to Mexico City and return, all hotels, meals and sightseeing. The group will return April 1.

This is expected to be the first of annual educational trips to Mexico.

Interested persons may call Mitchell or Donna at the travel agency in Concord.

Two-Year-Old Suits Dismissed

Two lawsuits which arose at an Orinda Lions Club barbecue over two years ago have been dismissed in Martinez.

Mrs. Lillian Baumgartner, 35, brought a $65,000 suit against Navy Commander Harold S. DuVal, 49, and DuVal filed a $8000 counter-suit.

Mrs. Baumgartner charged that DuVal, then a member of the operations staff at Treasure Island Naval Station, had slapped her, blackening her eyes and knocking her down, during an argument between herself and DuVal's wife, Helen. It happened at the barbecue near Lafayette on September 21, 1958.

Dale Wright, DuVal's attorney, said his client had agreed to pay the $400 fees to Mrs. Baumgartner's counsel for dismissal of the suit.

Commander DuVal has been transferred to Wyoming by the Navy.

You need a system to save, Harry!

"Years ago my bank manager at Wells Fargo American Trust asked me why I didn't pay myself regularly just like I pay everyone else. The idea made sense to me. So he set up an Automatic Savings Account and the bank moves money from my checking to my savings account every month. That money really adds up.

"System is the solution to savings. My bank was a step ahead when they introduced the first systematic savings plan in the West—and I think they're a step ahead today. That's why we all have our accounts there—it's really our family bank. They'll help you, too."

West County Taxpayers Like Court Merger

The West Contra Costa County Taxpayers Committee has announced its support of the merger of county justice and municipal courts.

Donald Clute, general chairman, said the group has unanimously approved the State Judicial Council's recommendation that the 17 justice and municipal courts be consolidated into three courts of each type.

The committee has members from the county's first supervisorial district.

In his report, State Chief Justice Phil Gibson estimated the initial saving will be $150,000 annually for taxpayers.

The Contra Costa supervisors did not take action on Gibson's recommendations, but asked County Administrator J. P. McBrien to provide a detailed analysis. His report is expected in the near future.

Don Fibush's Dream of 10 Years Comes True With Adoption Service

Ten years ago the father of five adopted children, Donald H. Fibush of Lafayette, firmly believed that more adequate adoption service should and could be provided in the form of a county agency.

Today his dream is a reality as this year the Adoption Unit of the Contra Costa County Social Service Department completed its 10th year of service to the community by placing the 603rd child with his adopted parents.

In 1949 Fibush formed a 25-member citizens' committee which studies the problem of adoption and presented its findings and recommendations to the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County. The board applied to the State Department of Social Welfare for a license to accept relinquishments of children for adoption and to place children in adoptive homes.

In July, 1950, the license was granted and the doors of the adoption unit were opened to the public.

The work of the adoption unit is concerned with three groups of people: the natural parents of the child, the child himself, and the prospective adoptive parents. These services are rendered by a child-centered relinquishment program in accordance with the principle that "Every child has the inalienable right to a home where love and affection give a normal opportunity for health growth."

This program provides the greatest protection for the child as the natural parent relinquishes all rights irrevocably to the agency. The adoption unit retains legal control of the child until the final decree of adoption is granted to the adoptive parents selected by its qualified professional social workers.

GROWTH has been the passport of the adoption unit these past 10 years—it started in Martinez in 1950 with a staff of three, Miss Muriel Nelson, supervisor, and Mrs. Patricia (Galpin) Moon and Mrs. Ines Williams, case workers.

Today the office is located in the new County Administration Building in Martinez and the staff consists of Miss Muriel Nelson and Archie Hanlon, supervisors, and 10 qualified case workers, including Mrs. Patricia Moon. Miss Hazel Bear is supervisor of the Child Welfare Division and W. G. Golden, director of the Social Welfare Department.

Not only has the adoption unit grown in personnel and facilities, but most important is the growth in service. In the first year and a half of service, 87 children were accepted for study, 39 were relinquished for adoption and 26 were placed in adoptive homes. During the period of January 1, 1959, to June 30, 1960, the adoption unit accepted 191 children for study, 103 were relinquished for adoption and 127 were placed in adoptive homes.

Also during this 18-month period the unit legally completed 103 adoptions and received 374 initial requests to adopt from which number 156 actual applications were received. Only 25 of these applications were denied or withdrawn.

The quality of the service has improved as well as the quantity. This is due partially to the increased size of the staff, but mainly to the staff's continued study and improvement of adoptive procedures. In its efforts to provide the best and safest adoption procedure possible the unit participates in national, state and local study groups and conferences.

THE ADOPTION unit has realized the special value of citizen leadership and participation in its adoption program. A group of citizens sufficiently interested and informed about the agency's service is of vital importance in helping to focus attention on the children who need parents but who are too young to select the family best able to meet their needs.

The Contra Costa Citizens Advisory Committee on Adoption consists of members representing eight communities and varied professions. This citizens committee evolved from the original committee headed by Don Fibush in 1949. It meets five times a year and in a strictly advisory capacity serves as a "sounding board" for community reaction to agency practice. It can give guidance to the staff in improving agency service, give accurate interpretation of agency service to the public and be a source of great moral support to the agency.

FURTHER citizen participation in the work of the adoption unit began with the formation of the Diablo Adoption Auxiliary in 1952 by a small group of women in Lafayette with a supervisor of the adoption unit as its advisor. Today this group has an active membership of 40 women, both adoptive and non-adoptive mothers, who meet once a month in members' homes to study, promote and strengthen the program of the adoption unit.

In 1953 a group of women in Richmond formed a similar auxiliary with the supervisor of the Child Welfare Division as their advisor. The primary function of these auxiliaries which are affiliates of the citizens advisory committee on adoption, is one of interpreta-

Cold Brought Monkey Down To Earth

When Thomas Lucas, 8, and his little sister, Ellen, 5½, found the spider monkey lying on their front lawn, it was too late.

It appears that the little fellow had been wandering about, looking for shelter, for several days.

But the night cold was too much for him by the time he reached the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lucas, 29 Donald Drive, Orinda.

Ellen was first to see the monkey, Monday morning. She ran and told her brother, saying, "It's a real live monkey, but it looks dead!"

Tom ran to tell his father who was watching television football. They wrapped the little fellow in foil and found a final resting place for him on their property.

Mother checked with the Orinda Fire Department to see if anyone had reported a lost monkey.

No—but someone a couple of days earlier had reported a monkey clinging to a high branch in the nearby Wheatcrest Drive, Moraga, area.

New Year's Resolutions Recorded for Posterity

By SUSAN COX and CAROL PEDERSEN

New Year's resolutions, with horns, hats and confetti: Bill Caldwell: "Never again on New Year's Eve;" John Walder, "Not to have more than one date lined up for one night;" Bill Kent, "To get married and settle down;" John Googins, "I, as assistant cheer leader, donate the Googins spell-out;" Rich Babcock, "Never take my car apart again;" Mason Fries, "We wrestlers resolve not to hurt members of the basketball team;" Carl Ogden, "Not to spend any money for a year;" Abbass Haghighat, "..."

Joann Hall visited a girl friend in Tucson, Arizona, over the holidays. While she was enjoying the hot sun, Dianna Hotchkiss was enjoying the smog in L.A. and visiting her grandfather.

Mason Fries visited his sister and family in Redding. Robin Brown visited Carmel and Lynn Holmgren went skiing. Ann Lincoln enjoyed her holidays in Death Valley and spent her 16th birthday in San Francisco with girl friends. Some of the cake eaters were Bonnie Henning and Wendy Wilcox, Hester Harris, Linda Jones and Nancy Goebel.

Holiday and New Year's parties: At Randy Young's, New Year's Eve party, some of the confetti throwers were Mary Moorehead, Bill Caldwell and Kathy Cokan, Dick Stark and Maurine Cokan, Charlene Dowie, Ron and Bob Welch and Bruce Hilger.

At Bill McGuire's New Year's Eve party, hat wearers and horn blowers were Kathy Shurtliff and Kurt Lundblad, Marilyn Brown and Bill McGuire, Carol Knudsen and Dave Dail, Ruth Thompson and Bill Brown, Sue Henry and Squire Fridell, Katy McQuaid and Milt Howe.

At Ruth Thompson's party, the guests were Jeff Neighbor, Linda Williams, Jim Boyd, Bill Van Voorhis, Vicky McCosker, Michele Angelo, Frank Feldman and Butch Guarneri.

Robert Boyle and Mary Baker, Peter Read and Jule Noller, Sue Henry and Squire Fridell, Kathy Shurtliff and Kurt Lundblad, Katy McQuaid and Milt Howe attended a party at the home of Dr. Lundblad before going on to Page Anderson's New Year's Eve party.

Some of the attendants at Carl Ogden's NYE party were Kurt Long and Ann Blow, Abbass Haghighat and Nancy Roberts, Randy Thaman and Lynn Bickerstaff, Steve Abbott and Terry Clark, and Carl Ogden and Terry Scott, Mason Fries and Larry Axelson, Karen Fernsten and Keith Thrallkill, and Don Grandburg and Emmy Graw. Abbass' best present was the bubble bath he received from Don and Emmy.

Sandy Brown, Miramonte alumna, gave birth to a baby boy during the holidays, and there was a baby shower for Betty Collins, alumna, at the home of Susie Lahti and Barb Smith.

Ski news! John Boyd wrecked his leg at Squaw Valley. Other Squawers were Vicki McCosker, Sandy Corbett, Bill Hilger, Robert Boyle and Kent Miller. Junior ski trips were held over the weekend of the 10th and 20th at Donner and Squaw Valley.

Senior gang at Squaw! John Walker, Andy DeGrassi, Mike Calhoun, John Drath, Rick Layne and Jim Hackett spent the weekend at a motel, which they apparently did not like. Cooking on the dresser was one of their main specialties. One of their adventures consisted of placing Mike, Andy, John Drath and Rick in the trunk of Jim's car and smuggling them into a drive-in movie. They convinced the usher that the muffled cries for help were coming from the radio.

Other skiers at Squaw were Tom Ferguson and Jonathon Jensen and Don White.

Miscellaneous: Rich Babcock received a corn popper for Christmas from the rest of the family so that he may entertain himself and the family at the same time. Rich also seems to be having a bit of car trouble. How far do you think you can get on two cylinders, Rich? He also bottles pills for Tony Hudson's father in Lafayette.

Joyce Odenthal spent the holidays working in a lodge at Sugar Bowl while Bill was skiing at Squaw. Mark Lawrence spent Christmas vacation skiing at Squaw and then hunting at his ranch. Barb Syverud and Gary Bishel, Barb Thomas and Steve Syverud went bowling at Rheem a couple of weeks ago and according to Barb Syverud, she bowled 285... Ha! Ha!

Helen Moylan got a red-and-white 1958 Ford for Christmas. Charlotte Kimball and Ann Blow went skiing along with all the other ardent Miramonte ski enthusiasts.

Karen Weatherbe received two dozen red roses for a New Year's Day present. Ooooo! Stinky Pooh! Loves me, or loves me not? That is the question.

Suzi and George Hollidge are the proud parents of a bouncing baby girl, Judith Adele, born on New Year's Day, 1961.

More news: New outfits for the cheer leaders of Miramonte High School—the girls, Lynn Bickerstaff, Joann Hall and Tina Cole will now wear green pleated skirts instead of the white band-stand skirts. Boys, Rick Bagley and John Googins, will now wear Bermuda shorts.

Notice: Big game tonight—Miramonte vs. Piedmont—first league game. A few words from the team, "We expect a victory over Piedmont."

Have You Noticed That Nice Clean, Sparkling Air?

When you awoke last Sunday morning, did the air seem a little bit fresher, a little sweeter?

Have you noticed less smoke and haze over Central Contra Costa County during this past week?

If these things strike you as being true, it is probably only your imagination, although they could be.

Regulation No. 2 of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District went into effect Sunday night.

MAJOR SMOG sources known in Contra Costa County have registered with the smog control district and made arrangements to abate their "nuisance", if they have not already done so.

In many cases, where heavy industry is involved, this is a long and costly process.

There was never any promise that smog would disappear immediately when enforcement regulations got teeth, but at least the problem is being attacked.

And you know who is next, don't you?

You (and all of us), because we are also contributing to the smog problem.

Every time you start the engine on the family car, or burn that pile of leaves, you are adding pollutants to the air.

AND SOONER or later you are going to have to have a smog control device on your car and you probably won't be able to burn your weeds.

And this will cost you money, personally.

But we think the whole program is good, and we are glad to see it get underway. Industry has already had to shell out plenty of money to try and control its smog problem, and we certainly can't be expected to do less than our part.

But it is a choice of a few dollars against stinging eyes and congested nasal passages.

We salute the industries who are going along with this (and many of them did before they were forced to).

And we're ready, too.

Thanks Are Helpful, too

Each year The Sun has the honor of presenting an award to The Man of the Year. Such a man was named in this community last week, and his award will be presented shortly.

And each year a committee of outstanding residents gathers to name such a man for the honor.

Their task is difficult, because our community abounds with men and women who work hard to make it what it is.

SOME SERVE on the school board, or the fire board . . . others chaperone dances; others repair toys for needy youngsters. The list contains almost as many people as there are in the community.

Do You Feel Crowded?

Do you like it here?

Chances are pretty good that you do, or you wouldn't have moved out here.

Chances also are that you moved out here because you like the "country" atmosphere that goes with our community.

And for this, you are willing (probably) to spend considerable time commuting each day.

UNFORTUNATELY, you were not alone (and neither were we!). Thousands of other families have done the same thing, and it might appear as if our "country" atmosphere is rapidly disappearing.

Contra Costa County gained over 110,000 people during the last 10 years with an average of 917 persons per month. That's a lot of people.

So, obviously, a lot of people like it here . . . and more are going to find that it is a pleasant place to live.

How, then, are we going to keep our pleasant valleys and our beautiful hills from becoming a hodge-podge of unorganized development? How are we going to maintain our pleasant way of life?

Just to make the picture gloomier, it is obviously going to get worse during the next 10 years.

THE PROBLEM looks almost insoluble, but it doesn't have to be. We are starting out a new year, and now is the time to really "plan ahead," current jokes notwithstanding.

It will require an intensive effort on the part of all of us, as well as the professional planners and the leaders of our governmental bodies.

Now is the time for alert—and advance—thinking. We can't avoid our population increase, but we can do much to integrate additional people and channel growth along pleasant lines.

The problem is ours—but the answer is ours, also.

The Staff Corner

Thank You, Doctor

By JEAN JERNIGAN

So you've got a good case of gripes over January bills? Too much spent on gifts, too much on entertainment, too many extras added to the regular household bills?

Just to add to the annual January nightmare, there are probably a few Doctor bills neatly tucked out of sight in the stack that grows larger with each mail delivery.

NOW THAT everyone is well, it's easy to tuck these particular bills out of sight, even easier to justify this with remarks like, "He's got a mint anyway," or, "This fee is outrageous for 15 minutes in his office and all he did was write out a prescription."

If your particular doctor happens to be in his middle years, you can even cinch the argument with "He's paid for his education time and again, by now, why should I contribute to his wife's convertible?"

Let's consider that wife for a minute. A convertible is small comfort if she spent Christmas alone explaining to her children that Daddy was working . . . Perhaps "Daddy" was taking care of your youngsters.

FEEL genuinely ill as you contemplate the latest statement from your pediatrician? How did you feel when you called this same doctor when Johnny was hurt or Susie lay burning with fever?

The calm friendly voice of your doctor as he gave instructions over the phone was probably like a strong hand reaching out across the wires to help you. What was it worth to you then? Probably much more than the figure on that statement tucked out of sight.

Whether he's a specialist or a general practitioner, your doctor gives much more than his professional services. He gives reassurance, comfort, and the warmth of a friend in need.

HE'S ALWAYS available, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Perhaps not always in person, he may have someone "covering" for him, but his knowledge and ability is ever present.

When your doctor goes home after a day's work, he can't sit down and relax with a martini or two . . . you, or someone else will be sure to call and need his help. He wouldn't last long breathing alcoholic fumes on his patients.

Most workers can make a few minor mistakes without losing their job or even being reprimanded. Your doctor can't make a mistake, it might mean your life, or the life of your child. The tremendous responsibility that lies in the skill of your doctor's knowledge and ability does not rest lightly. Can you put a price on responsibility?

SUPPOSING that stack of bills stays out of sight too long? You'll hear from the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker, but your doctor won't come wrapping at the door with a "pay up or else" demand.

Most doctors will cooperate with their patients and work out a system where the payment will not add to the patient's pain, or the problems of his family.

Your doctor is many things to you, the least of which is the symbol of a whopping big bill.

Next time you call him, why not say, "Thank you, doctor?"

SOME SMART ALECK STOLE HALF HER LIFE

She'll miss those carefree summers at the beach, the dances, the parties—so many happy times. And all because some driver ignored a warning signal. Law violations like that are at the root of most traffic accidents. When every driver obeys the rules, most of this tragic crippling and killing will stop. Do your part—and see that others do the same. Where traffic laws are strictly obeyed, accidents go down!

FACE THIS FACT

Drivers are the No. 1 cause of traffic accidents which last year injured 1,400,000 and killed 38,000. This year an increase is threatened. How long must this go on? YOU can supply the answer!

Published in an effort to save lives, in cooperation with the National Safety Council and The Advertising Council.

We Like It Here . . . A Few Resolutions that Are Bound To Be Broken!

By MARIE MONAHAN

FOR HER: Resolved . . . To remember that the car needs oil and water now and then.

For Him: Resolved . . . NOT TO BLOW a gasket when the wife burns out the engine.

For Her: Resolved . . . To remember at which cleaners she left the gray slacks, the blue suit and the brown sport coat.

FOR HIM: Resolved . . . To remember THEIR ANNIVERSARY without being reminded.

FOR HER: Resolved . . . To not wait until the last clean shirt is worn before taking the breadwinner's bundle to the laundry.

For Him: Resolved . . . To not storm through the house when there isn't a single clean shirt left for that morning's important meeting.

For Her: Resolved . . . To not write checks without first filling out the left-hand stub and For Him: Resolved . . . To not blame the bank for his wife's overdrafts.

FOR HER: Resolved . . . To not put cookies in the oven or coffee on the perk and then disappear into the garden or to the neighbor's for an hour.

For Him: Resolved . . . That he will absolutely NOT scour any more scorched and charred pots and pans.

For Her: Resolved . . . To not borrow books, cigarettes, milk, flour and sugar from the neighbor and then never remember to return same.

FOR HIM: Resolved . . . To not borrow the neighbor's lawn mower and then keep it for six months.

For Her: Resolved . . . To not put the children's clothes into the washer without first checking their pockets for prized possessions like pet frogs, peanut shells and rocks.

FOR HIM: Resolved . . . To forevermore give up wool socks, especially red ones, which are a waste of money once thrown in with the white wash thereby making a double loss.

FOR HER: Resolved . . . To not run the dryer if the cat is sleeping inside.

For Him: Resolved . . . To remain calm throughout all family crises concerning assorted and ill-assorted pets.

For Her: Resolved . . . To not run the vacuum without making sure first there's a disposable bab inside.

FOR HIM: Resolved . . . To not blow a fuse when his wife blows the fuse because she's running the hair drier, the iron, the toaster and the electric mixer simultaneously on the same circuit.

For Her: Resolved . . . TO KEEP plenty of candles handy when the above catastrophe occurs.

For Him: Resolved . . . To contribute more than idle chatter and neighborhood gossip to the riders in the car pool.

Letters to The Editor

RAPID TRANSIT

Dear Editor:

A bouquet to the editor who wrote so clearly in the December 30 Sun regarding routing of the proposed rapid transit system.

Directors of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District would do well to keep in mind that to residents of this area, rapid transit presents few attractions.

Our commuters are generally not dependent on public carriers. This is demonstrated by the low patronage of Greyhound, which now provides really excellent service to both Oakland and San Francisco. This service, moreover, will be vastly improved with completion of the new tunnel and the Grove-Shafter Freeway.

Lafayette, with low density population and property values a little higher than those of many communities along the transit route, is quite conscious of the tax burden involved in a system costing over a billion dollars.

When you add to this a substantial depreciation of hundreds of properties, plus an elevated structure which, for many neighborhoods, would be a prominent feature of the landscape, it is not difficult to foresee determined opposition by an aroused citizenry.

Bus Lights Help Speed Traffic

The flashing red lights on a school bus are designed to speed up traffic by lessening the number of stops for other vehicles, according to California Highway Patrol Commission Bradford M. Crittenden.

"Far from being a hindrance, the lights indicate to cars approaching from both front and rear when a stop is required. Before the flashing red signals were installed on school buses, drivers of other vehicles were required to stop whenever the bus halted," he emphasized.

This resulted in a number of unnecessary stops and caused some traffic tie-ups. Adoption of the flashing red lights was intended to smooth out traffic flow by reducing the number of mandatory stops.

The law provides that the school bus operator must activate the flashing red light when he stops to load or unload children who must cross the street on departing from or to reach the bus.

Drivers approaching from either direction are required to stop upon viewing this flashing red signal.

Overweight Overworks The Heart

Pointing out that "overweight overworks the heart," the Contra Costa County Heart Association, a chapter of the American Heart Association, today appealed to the public to adopt the following New Year's resolution: "Resolved, that during 1961 I will do everything within my power to keep my weight at a reasonably normal level as a means of safeguarding my heart and my health."

The association, which will conduct its annual Heart Fund campaign throughout the nation during February, explained that insurance actuarial studies have shown that there is a penalty attached to added weight so far as mortality is concerned.

Under The Sun Let's Talk About Colds, Children, Civil Defense

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

"Hey, Boss, what are those piles of notes and papers doing on your desk?" asked Snoopy, the office cat. "Isn't this column writing day?"

Yes, Snoopy, I'm going to use them for my column. "Well, are you too lazy to write a column of your own?"

No, Snoopy, that's not the problem. Here's some mighty interesting stuff. Let me show you.

What to do about colds?

Do you suffer from colds? If this sounds like a commercial, it isn't. It's a report from Chicago.

"The American Medical Association said today a cold lasts about a week regardless of what you do for it."

This and the following statements come from the A.M.A.'s Journal.

"No cold remedy can do anything more than provide temporary relief of certain cold symptoms. Many do not even relieve symptoms effectively. Hence, they do little more than subtract from your pocketbook."

"In the best scientific opinion today, a cold is a nose and throat infection that lasts about a week and is caused by an unknown number of viruses," the doctor's journal concluded.

Children and their dignity

Here's a paragraph picked up from "Growing Pains," a health council bulletin:

"Help your child maintain his dignity. We all need our self respect and dignity to function as well as we can; children are no exception. So:

"Don't scream at him. (How many adults do you scream at?)

"Don't criticize publicly.

"Don't comment unfavorably on physical size, etc.

"Don't push the child beyond his ability and don't compare him with others.

"Accept your child as he is!"

If the bomb falls . . .

Are we (you and I—and the nation) prepared for a nuclear attack? The answer, of course, is "no."

In San Francisco recently, Dr. Edward Teller, father of the H-Bomb, declared, "We need very desperately immediate organization and planning for a civil defense program. The Russians are doing very much more than we are."

"Shelters can save most of our population," he said. "It won't save our industry but we can rebuild industry. I am convinced that an all-out nuclear war won't mean the end of mankind."

Spend more dollars?

He urged the U.S. government to spend 50 times more on civil defense than it is now spending. Adequate civilian defense preparedness in the U.S. would be the greatest deterrent to a Russian nuclear attack, Dr. Teller added.

There's an excellent article in Time magazine last week on this very same subject.

Incidentally, how well prepared are you right now if you had to evacuate and drive inland from the Bay Area because of a nuclear attack? Full gas tank? Family plan? Emergency food box? Clothing?

Something to think about!

Red tape and brass

Here's a dispatch from Washington:

"Most of the present Pentagon leaders already are on record opposing another defense reorganization as far-reaching as that recommended to President-elect John F. Kennedy."

Remember—Senator Stuart Symington recently proposed the elimination of separate departments of the Army, Navy and Air Force and give more power to the Secretary of Defense. This is an over-simplification of the plan but its total effect is to streamline our defense organization. Of course, our military leaders (or most of them) oppose it—primarily on selfish grounds.

In this atomic age, our Defense Department must be organized efficiently. Echelons, channels and red tape must be at a minimum.

If you read some interesting news items, please clip them and send to me. Thank you.

Sheriff's Substations Will Continue for One Year

Sheriff's substations at Lafayette and Oakley can be eliminated at any time in the opinion of County Administrator Joseph P. McBrien.

Commenting on Sheriff Walter Young's decision to continue both substations for a year pending full study, McBrien said, "We don't need them, particularly in a county the size of Contra Costa."

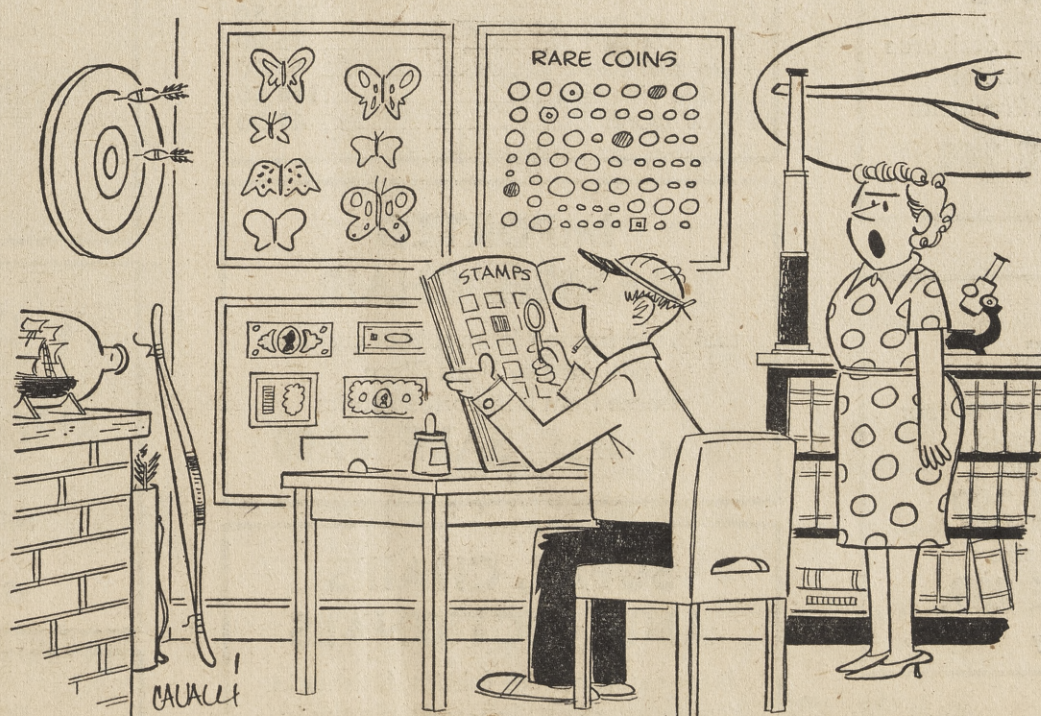

"THE PRIMARY requisites for an effective sheriff's department are competent personnel, adequate transportation and good communications," McBrien continued. "Substations are a minor detail in the organization."

Sheriff Young announced last week that the substations at Lafayette and Oakley would be continued for at least a year, during which time the sheriff's department will conduct a survey to determine whether the two substations should be continued. A third substation at Richmond is required by state law.

"We must determine if the substations provide the best service for the costs, considering modern methods of radio communications," Young said. He added the practice is to keep deputies on patrol in their cars instead of at an office.

THE OFFICERS in each area are in constant contact by radio with the sheriff's headquarters in Martinez. There is no radio

Horses, Dolls, Keep Family Active and Busy

Combine interest in horses with dainty dolls, stir in two parents clubs, flavor with Brownies and community work and the kind of family that makes Alamo a nice place to live begins to take shape.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green of Stone Valley Road and their children, Gretchen and Paul, are typical of the young families who contribute so much to the happy atmosphere of our area.

Mary Barbara Green is not only a native of California, but also a native of Contra Costa County. She met her husband when both were students at the College of the Pacific. They have made their home in Alamo for the past nine years.

SOON AFTER coming to the area, Harry Green joined the San Ramon Valley Horseman's Association. "Harry always had a horse of his own, from the time he was a boy," Mrs. Green said. "When the association needed someone to take the young inexperienced riders and teach them horsemanship, Harry decided to do it."

Mr. Green now spends many hours working with the boys and girls who are members of the Junior Horseman's Association. The Greens have a pinto named Susie, who actually belongs to their nine year old daughter, Susie.

"We all ride," Mrs. Green remarked, "but I'm not as good as the rest of the family, and Paul can take it or leave it. The real enthusiasts are my daughter and my husband."

IN ADDITION to serving on the board of directors of the Horseman's Association, Mr. Green is also a vice president of the Dad's Club of the Alamo School which Paul, 7, attends.

Vacations the Greens like to go camping in the mountains, but for shorter leisure hour pleasure they take trips to points of interest in the area. "Since we're both Californians and proud of our state, we like to take the children to historic places and teach them about their own state," Mrs. Green commented.

ALTHOUGH SHE laughed and said, "I just sit," when asked about her leisure hours, those who know Mary Barbara Green also know she has little time to sit.

Mrs. Green is secretary of the Mothers Club, leader of Brownie Troop 205 and a substitute teacher at the Danville Presbyterian Church.

In her second year as Brownie leader, Mrs. Green is assisted by Mrs. Earl Waldie. The women find that this particular group of girls enjoy their craft work and hiking the most.

TOGETHER WITH daughter Gretchen, Mrs. Green delights in collecting foreign dolls. "The collection began when I was a little girl," she recalled. "Then I gave it to Gretchen and we enjoy the hobby together."

New Bay Area Smog Regulation Goes Into Effect

Unrestricted smoke from industrial, commercial and institutional is now illegal in Contra Costa County.

Regulation 2, enacted by the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, went into effect Sunday. It restricts most smoke and fume-producing sources, including industries, businesses, institutions, schools, waste disposal operations and multiple dwellings of three or more units. These must either reduce contamination to allowable limits or file schedules of compliance.

"MAJOR smog sources known in the county have registered and made arrangements to abate emission of air contaminants as required by the regulation," according to Robert B. Crothers, chief of the county health department's air sanitation division.

Local enforcement of the Bay Area district's regulations will be Crothers' job. However, the BAAAPCD will do actual enforcement when needed until formal agreements are worked out with the cities and counties involved.

Joseph Coons, the district's chief of enforcement, said that they don't anticipate a heavy rash of court actions, but they can take action if necessary.

Enforcement of the regulation, even with maximum cooperation by county and city personnel, is expected to cost more than $1 million in the next fiscal year.

THIS WILL require an increase in the property tax rate in the six counties included in the district from one to two cents for each $100 of assessed valuation. The district's one-cent limit was set by the State Legislature and any increase would have to be okayed by them.

Complete compliance with Regulation 2 by all affected establishments may cost more than $100,000,000, experts have estimated.

Not yet covered by any area-wide regulation are such smog sources as exhausts of motor vehicles, aircraft and other internal combustion engines.

Enrollment Begins for Art Classes--All Levels

The new 1961 schedule of art classes sponsored by the Valley Art Center has been announced by Class Chairman Mrs. John Gilmour of 4 Highland Court, Orinda.

Persons interested in art instruction may enroll in one of the classes by calling Mrs. Gilmour at her home.

Beginners are welcome in all of the classes offered. Of particular interest to those who have never dabbled in art before is the class in the basic fundamentals of composition and color to be taught by Jan Craemer at her home at 50 Los Alamos Court in Alamo on Tuesday evenings from 8 to 10.

She will offer the same class at the Stanley School, 3455 School Street in Lafayette on Wednesday evenings at the same hour. Mrs. Craemer's classes begin January 10 and 11 respectively. Another new class, the art of silk screen prints, will be taught by Jack Biedermann, a graduate of arts and crafts in Oakland and the art teacher at Mount Diablo High School.

His group will meet at the Stanley School on Monday evenings from 7:30 to 10:30 starting next week.

Among the classes which will be offered again this year because of great popularity in the past are Ruth Howard's classes in mosaics.

Her beginner's group will meet Tuesday mornings at 10 beginning January 10; the advanced group will meet Wednesday mornings at 10 beginning January 11.

Both classes will be given at Mrs. Howard's home studio at 2385 Walnut Boulevard in Walnut Creek.

Oil painting will be taught by the well known artist, Lyle Lund, at his home, 781 Old Jones Hill Road in Lafayette. His class meets Wednesday mornings from 9:30 to 12:30 starting January 11.

Water color technique will be taught by the talented Don Osterloh on Thursday mornings 9 to 12 at the Orchard Nursery.

Area Hunters Are Active

By LARRY JACKSON
Most of the nimrods in our area are busy helping close out our hunting season. Kurt Haase, Frontier Gun Shop in Lafayette, and Dr. Joe Sweet, Ducks Unlimited, hit the trail to Grizzly Island and limited out on the "bull Sprig." The best items on this hunt were that both used 20-gauge guns and had dogs with them. Bravo!

Lots of birds were in evidence and if you waited until you saw the whites of their eyes you had no problems.

Had an interesting discussion on plans for a teenage hunting and fishing group with these sportsmen—this I approve of and will help to put over. Dr. Ed Maloney, son Ed, Mickey MacPherson and George Simpson, all of Lafayette, hid themselves to their private shooting area at Cordelia and really had "ball" picking only the big bi-

Mallard and Sprig, for their limits. Incidentally, Simpson is one of the "top" trainers of the Chesapeake-Labrador dogs in this area and young Ed Maloney expounded at length on the ability of Simpson's grand dog, yes, a Chessie. I almost challenged him to compete with my grey Wei, but knowing George's rep, I backed off. As

Orinda Sun
Charlie Weaver would say — "These are my people." Love that hunting dog. Les Lloyd and the scribbler of this opus limited out over the weekend at Colusa and are planning a repeat this week at the same spot. All the above nimrods are planning repeats to their haunts before the season ends.

Cecil Kelly of Kelly's Sporting Goods will shoot it out at his favorite spot, likewise Ed Boero of the Walnut Creek sporting goods establishment, the boys Harry Knudson and Olin Eddy of Sports Chalet, Pleasant Hill — Harry heading for Manteca, with Olin chasing the geese, possibly at West Buttes.

Las Lomas Tabbed as League Play Opens

The practice season is now a matter of record and the chips are down tonight as the Foothill basketball teams open league play.

The only undefeated team at this writing was the Las Lomas Knights who look to be the favorite to cop the mythical pennant. In addition to winning their practice tilts, they walked away as the only undefeated club in the Miramonte Jamboree.

Lineups at this stage are still tentative, but the probable starters for Coach Merrill Callow as they meet the San Ramon Wolves at the Walnut Creek gym are four seniors and a junior.

THE LONE junior, Bob Nichols, is a top performer and a heads-on favorite to wind up on the all league team. Nichols is a top all-around performer who not only shoots well but works well on the boards.

Other starters are Jim Murphy at forward, Rod Holcomb at center, with Rene Brandol and Rich Scott holding forth at the guard spots. All but Holcomb are reported in top shape and certain to start. Holcomb sprained an ankle last Monday and could be sidelined for tonight's opener.

San Ramon has had problems to date, winning one while dropping three practice games. The win came over College Park, with Alameda, Pittsburg and Livermore defeating them in that order.

Coach Larry DeRushia's top player is junior center Jim Howell, who has been the big playmaker and scorer to date. He was a standout in the Miramonte tournament where he was picked on the all star five.

COACH DeRushia is uncertain as to his starters at the forward spots, but it will be Glenn Miller and either Bob Stellmacher or Jim Wood. All three are seniors. Casey Evans, another senior, holds forth at one guard position, with junior Bob Metz getting the call at the other guard slot.

Acalanes, with Coach Bert Barnett in his first year as head man, has an in-and-out club that at times shows promise and could upset somebody's applecart along the way.

They opened the season with a surprise 36-34 win over Vallejo, then were racked by Mt. Diablo, 43-27. In their third go, Stagg of Stockton closed fast to edge the Dons, 51-49. Acalanes came back fast to nail Shasta, 49-39.

The Dons travel to Martinez tonight to meet the Alhambra Bulldogs in the league opener, and the tentative starters are Dennis Herrick at center, with Dave Stegman and John Jones at guards along with Doug Treter and Tom Strain as forwards. Jones is a junior while all others are seniors.

THE ALHAMBRA Bulldogs under Coach Ralph Jackson have had a hard time getting under way as they have but one win as against three losses and wound up last in the Miramonte tournament.

The win was over hapless College Park who are in their first year of play, while the losses have come at the hands of Pleasant Hill, DeAnza and Pittsburg.

A pair of juniors and three seniors will form the starting five. The juniors are guard Tom Quontamatteo and center Jim Jammett. Hammitt, as a note of interest, is a transfer by way of Acalanes.

Seniors are Ernie Griffanti at guard with Dennis Watson and Morgan Groth at forwards.

THE BIG game in tonight's opening action is between Piedmont and Miramonte, to be played at the Orinda school.

Piedmont, under Coach Bob Cope, came a long way last year and are anything but an easy touch this season. They are even-steven in the win-loss column, having defeated Emeryville and Sunset of Hayward, while dropping close decisions to Abraham Lincoln of San Francisco and Clayton Valley.

The Highlanders have a veteran crew in a lineup consisting of Bill Clayton and Bob Foskett as forwards, Tom Stewart at center and Rick Prestwood with Bill Klippert as guards.

Herb Graw, in his second year at Miramonte, has done a fine job of building and has come up with a team that rates as the one with the best chance to upset Las Lomas' title hopes.

They have won but one to date, while losing to Galileo and Livermore, with the win coming at the expense of Castro Valley.

THE MATADORS suffered an early season loss when Randy Thaman, a veteran, was sidelined for the season with a re-break of a collarbone.

A big factor in the Mats' hope is center Jack Gilbert, who is especially valuable on the boards. In guards Bill Caldwell and Dick Stark the Mats have a capable pair, both of whom can score well from the outside.

It's a race in the forward positions with Coach Graw not yet decided on his starters, all of whom are pretty much on an even basis. His choice will lie in two of the following: Doug Hudson, Bob Welch, Walt Attorfer, Mike McQuaid and Brad Peters.

By ERWIN MATTSON

It is rather difficult to realize that spring sports are but six weeks away what with the weather below freezing.

It's to be hoped that there is a change before the opening date of spring practice, which is set for February 15, when swimming, baseball, track and golf swing into action.

Tennis, a one time spring sport, has been shifted to the fall so it is finished except those who qualified for the North Coast Section Meet which will be held this spring.

Athletes come in all sizes and shapes but perhaps one of the best small ones in the area at the present is Pleasant Hill's Dave Moore, who at 129 pounds is the top to date in Bay Area wrestling. In football, despite his lack of size, he was an outstanding halfback.

Last year a respiratory infection laid him low at the time of the North Coast Wrestling Meet or the chances are he could have been another North Coast champ for the Ram powerhouse.

The best description of him probably is a hunk of skin wrapped around a heart!

The big story of the professional athletic scene was the winning of the championship by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Norm "Stub" Van Brocklin, ace quarterback of the Eagles, announced his retirement, as did head Coach Buck Shaw. Speculation has been rife that Van would succeed Shaw, but no announcement has come out to date.

It remains to be seen what will happen, but a good bet is that he will wind up somewhere in the football picture. It's a game he has always loved and worked at to the point where he became a perfectionist.

Ram Cagers Will Open League Play on Tuesday

The Pleasant Hill Rams won and Bob Jensen and Terry Hughes as guards. The Rams hold wins to date over Alhambra, Livermore, Hayward, Red Bluff and St. Ignatius. In that order.

Tuesday the Rams open official league play as they tackle the Clayton Valley Eagles at Clayton Valley.

Coach Art Poulin has a club that figures to wind up in the first division, but hardly likely to overtake the highly rated Red Devils or the Pittsburg Pirates.

The league opener lineup as announced by Coach Poulin finds Alex Oxley, a junior, getting called at one forward spot, with seniors Glen Graham at forward along with Dick Doyle at center

FIVE DROPS CAN SAVE A LIFE!

Oakland's Jeanette Voss runs a bird hospital. In one respect birds are much like people. The water they drink must be unquestionably pure.

Your EBMUD water qualifies. It's constantly being watched, tested, filtered. In fact, EBMUD is the only 100% filtered metropolitan water system west of the Mississippi.

The result? Pure, safe water that far exceeds standards set by U.S. Department of Health. Water that people (and birds) like to drink.

Words Can Get You In Trouble

"Why Do People Misunderstand Each Other" is the title of the first 1961 film showing of the Contra Costa Chapter of the International Society for General Semantics tonight at 8 at Diablo Valley College, room 217, Main Building.

Moderator for the evening's discussion will be Aron S. Gilman, minister of the Diablo Unitarian Church, and board of directors of the Mental Health Association and Central Community Welfare Council, both United Crusade agencies.

The film shows how the misinterpretation of words is one of the basic barriers to good family and business relations.

The film was edited by Dr. Irving Lee, a professor in public speaking at Northwestern University and author of "Language and Habits of Human Affairs," "Language of Wisdom and Folly" and "Why Do People Get in Verbal Jams."

The public and members are welcome to attend the free film showing. For additional information they may call Mrs. Estelle Girande or Mrs. David Keating.

NEW NICKEL PROJECT

The new project of International Nickel at Thompson, Manitoba, which is nearing completion, is scheduled to start full-scale production of electrolytic nickel in 1961 at an annual rate of at least 75,000,000 pounds.

CORROSION-RESISTANT IRON

Ni-Resist corrosion-resisting nickel cast iron provides excellent resistance to corrosion and heat as well as a unique combination of useful engineering properties such as wear-resistance, toughness and machinability.

Bernie Davis Beats 'Pro's' With Speech

Bernie Davis won top honors over several "old pros" at last week's meeting of the Diablo Toastmasters Club.

In his talk entitled "Look to the Masters," Bernie demonstrated some of the speech principles and techniques used by the great speakers of past and present.

"Shifty" Paul Tuft, in the assumed role of President-Elect John Kennedy, won the table topics cup for his impromptu response to a political question. John Phillips' evaluation of Davis' winning speech was judged the best of the evening.

Club Secretary Byrd Thysell, filling in for President Hugh Southworth, announced that the January 12 program will feature a special 15 minute presentation and demonstration by ex-Toastmaster C. C. Wiseman.

The Diablo Toastmasters Club meets every Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at the Nut Bowl restaurant on Oak Park Boulevard, Pleasant Hill.

A few memberships are still available and men who are interested are invited to attend to observe the program.

The unique and important properties which nickel is capable of imparting to other metals makes it one of the most widely used and valuable alloying materials available to modern designers and producers.
